MD27 EMERGING LIONS LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE PROCESS OVERVIEW

PARTICIPANT QUALIFICATIONS

1. Candidates for this institute must be a member of a Lions club located in MD27.
2. The Lions Leadership Institute for Emerging Lions Leaders focuses on building the skills of Lions members for leadership opportunities at the club level, particularly the position of club president.
3. Candidates must be Lions in good standing with eight years or less of membership. They must be serving or have served successfully on a club committee and have not yet attained the position of club president. Charter club presidents are also eligible for this institute.
4. Candidates must be willing to commit to a three -day program including group mealtime activities. Attendance at all classroom sessions and scheduled meals is mandatory.
5. A Lion participating in an Emerging Lions Leadership Institute must wait for a period of three years (thirty-six months) from the closing date of that institute before participating in a subsequent institute.

INSTITUTE COSTS

Lions Clubs International, MD27 and each district will pay for meals and double occupancy lodging during the actual days of the institute. Transportation, related travel expenses and hotel incidentals are the participant's responsibility.

SELECTION PROCESS

A maximum of 20 attendees will be invited to attend. Because of the high number of applications, acceptance into the institute is not guaranteed. In order to have as many districts represented at the institute as possible, two candidates per district will be selected. In the event that more than two applicants per district apply for the institute, the District Governor from said district will determine the attendees. More than two participants from a district will be allowed on a space available basis. Successful applicants will be notified approximately 30 days prior to the institute with further details and pre-institute assignments.

MD27 reserves the right to cancel the institute due to an insufficient number of applications submitted on or before September 15, 2008.

The Leadership Division of Lions Clubs International and MD27 maintain the quality of all aspects of the institute, including program, faculty and the participant selection process.
